introduction.

This is Hourglass number one. I used to do Endangered Existence, maybe you liked it, but if not, oh well. My effort is directed for life. If I talk noone listens. So read this. Maybe you'll think this is shit, I don't care, wipe your ass with it. But please read it. If you think it is directed at you, it probably is. If not, fuck it. Too much feeling blocked for too long. Too afraid to speak. You never know when the hourglass will run out. That is the reason for my effort.

Thanks if you helped in any possible way. Thanks to my friends(you know who you be) Sorry you didn't get your name in the light, but I do appreciate contributions. I don't think everyone else needs to know who you are. Extra thanks to Justin-Out Structured for making this possible.

DAMN YOUR POWER

These are my feelings you're playing with. How can you throw them around like a fucking ball. If this is gonna be the way it goes, then leave me the fuck alone. I don't know how long I can continue to put up with your shit. Fuck you! You don't even care you piece of shit. Another lugey on your fucking face. Now you die. Time to rot in hell.

My Ramblings:

Well thanks for getting yet another out structured issue. Hopefully my new issue, #4 will have interviews with soulstice and Ben from earth crisis. Issue #3 has sold really well, but I wish I could have done some changes, but I'm really sure you want to hear me ramble, but I'm going to anyway. Issue #4 will be out sometime in the summer due to financial problems. I want to thank Kurt a whole lot for thinking of the idea to do this split. I hope you enjoy this as much as I enjoyed putting it together. I'll be moving to Syracuse, not because it's cool to move there, but to go to college, so I won't have o.s. #4 until I move, if you were curious. If anyone wants to distro this zine or any other issue of out structured write for prices and quantaties. I plan to do some side projects, like a spoken word tape, maybe. Your input would be appreciated. I really need picture contributions, so send pictures. I'm looking for pictures of: conviction, bloodlet, earth crisis, unbroken, grip, soulstice, undertow, slayer, and any of the sort. oh well enough of the ramblings, see you next issue.

With the knowledge that all life under the sun, moon and stars has the same spirit of life flowing through it's veins, we recognize the equality of, and seek justice for, all living beings-regardless of race, age, or species-and inaccordance with this, live and promote a lifestyle that is ecologically and socially responsible and totally free from the use of all animal products. taken from the vegan reich tape

As I attempt to sew the incision in my heart, I also sew my eyes shut. My eyes are bleeding, and the stench of my own blood tears my stomach to pieces. I no longer want to take part in this fucked up world. I no longer want to play part in any of these games. I am now alone, and it will probably remain this way for the rest of my miserable existence. There is nothing left for me to look forward to. My eyes will remain shut, for there is nothing left to see. The flood of my own blood will end my miserable life. I only wish it was that easy. Please let it end. I beg you! My purpose is dead.

BOOM!

In this apathetic society that hides behind it's seemingly caring structure, we have got to see that without a foundation, we can't be strong. How can you build on lies, they crumble in time. Some people don't have a problem killing others' ardent passion for change, repressing their will to fight to live in a society that would rather forget about them. So many are forgotten daily. Too numerous to count. Hungry for salvation within themselves, being told too many times they are nothing. Changes are coming about soon, hopefully this time they will end up actually making a difference.

My anger entraps me in the embowlment of my mind. Pure disgust floods you not nothingness. Hatred expressed, you become of anger. You not hope for return. You not take pride in your ignorance, you not worth it? What is sacrificed, but you lost. Well you lost. How do you feel?

for some reason all my struggles and efforts seem to be a waste of my time. time to sit and do nothing but stare into space. i have failed most greatly, but unknowing. all my life i've tried to achieve something that wasn't mine. something that was held in a case that has now been removed from it's case out of my sight because i have failed. i failed to follow footsteps in which i took for granted. on the stepping stones of grief i lay because i have failed. my whole life mimicked out in a patterned web of sorrow that you would cry out at from sympathy. at last an end to a re-birth of myself because of my failure i am welding back into place of my destiny.

naturistic flowers in wet dew, long days piled with cold nights. a bleeding city in return gets nothing. deteriorating with flesh, ourselves lost in a world with minutes and seconds. calendars map out the years. tears fall from the sky, burning bodies die in the forests of our thoughts. a nights' sky, a daydream followed by consistency for failure. a deluded future follows a path of destruction. never taken for granted the clouds and free space. a roaming naturistic freedom for evolution. the ever so slightly lists of things to do. a shaded walk, a shaded tree top clears thoughts where a gap shows the sun cropped on the ground. a dark wet enchanted past lightens a distant growing future.

Here's some real intellectual mail I recieved. Note, if you plan to do the same, and mail me stupid mail, save your paper, I have no time for idiots.

Dear Endangered Existence,

I got a copy of your zine a few days ago. I enjoyed reading the many articles in your zine, and I liked 3/4 of the interviews, overall, you did a pretty good job, but I question your belief on veganism. You see, I have been a vegetarian for 6½ years, and I agree that the slaughter of animals is wrong, but there is no doubt in my mind that humans can't survive healthy without depending on animal by-products. We need milk to survive, besides, if we do not milk cows, they will swell up and die. Also, they do not kill the cows for their milk. I respect vegans for caring so much, but the truth is, nothing will ever change, you can't escape it, so why bother. So respect your own life, don't eat meat, it's not good for you, but drink milk, it does a body good.

JaySXE
P.S. Gain some weight vegan!

Well jay, thanx for wasting your paper on a topic you seem to know nothing about. I'd like to point out your negative attitude of "nothing will ever change," then why the fuck do you even bother being a vegetarian? My reply to "humans can't survive without animal by-products," is, do you ever even leave your house? Look around, open your eyes, people have been doing it for years. Veganism is a very healthy diet if it is done correctly.

Cows do not have to be milked to survive. Do you really think that they were created to depend on humans? No, I don't think so. Explain how they survived before man discovered how to exploit them, when they could only depend on themselves. Do you really think that cows are somehow liberated after they've been milked? No, they are shipped right to the slaughterhouse. Finally, milk is not good for you, it's packed with cholesterol, and fat. Tell that to your doctor.

Jay, Don't be so confident to tell people where they're wrong until you know the actual facts. GO VEGAN!

P.S. I was skinny before I even became a vegetarian, so fuck off oppressor!

Regarding the word OPPRESSOR in the passage above:I am not calling JaysXE an oppressor because of his diet. It was simply a term I chose to use that was basically in contrast of statement GAIN SOME WEIGHT VEGAN. The word oppressor was not directed at anyone else. Thank You.

the tables have turned on forces greater than the high plat form you rest. i once was the hunter, but now am the hunted. playing a game of false lies. dodging your bullets as if they were dropps of rain. a killer you rest in a puddle covered in the must. a hunter you watch as i hide. a wrong move means a shot in my head. a bullet with my name. we both play along with my last wish, of cold blood i dream of in the night. i am your prey, the hunted become the hunters. thinking so easily of pain and starvation i could create. i rest my soul on the mountain of wishes. unbroken my spirit lays glued to my bones. this world in flames. the truth is only an arm's reach away. the chains that bare me down hold on no more. now the tables turn once again. it's time to inflict the pain you so deserve. dodging bullets once more in the dark. taking my last wish. i am the hunter at last taking vengeance for myself.

Why do I let my anger build up so much that I just wanna rip my fucking hair out? Why am I such a pussy that I can't just say fuck you, you make me sick. Well I've learned. Fuck you! I'm over trying. Don't expect it anymore. You can hate me. I'll enjoy it. It'll make me hard.

I hate you, you only make life worse, you're so fucking fake. the way you act is killing me, you try and try to be so different, but you act like everyone else, no different, just another silent voice in the crowd. We are the demons killing and torturing. How much evil will it take to show you how serious it is. Mass murdering society where we all have bad blood. We're all conditioned that this is known as earth our heaven and we should feel glad to be here. For your apathy and your insolence, your downfall is beckoning. I ease you into your death bed. I have few regrets, but some I cannot forget. Does it really mean that much? Obviously there is some reason it hurts me. It wasn't important. Why was I so blind? I will dwell on it for the rest of my life, unable to forget the mistake I had made. Is it possible to erase this from my past? I doubt it, because it will haunt me until the day I'm dead. DARK HOUR

(main pic) and Reservoir Dogs

i hope you hate this. i hope this goes in your head over and over again. i hope you burn. i hope you rot. i hope this turns into an anoying lulaby that you can here from five hundred miles away. i want you to feel this. i want you to plug your ears and scream, but the sound won't go away. even in your dark little pit it will still exist just like that bad tune that pops in to your head. it won't go away, not this time. this time it will last forever. you'll die in misery. but it still won't go away, its just not that easy. as long as its remembered, it'll exist. i'll make sure of it.

It's all over now. And fuck you, and fuck you. No more games, no more threats. Maybe you'll see me again. Maybe I'll fucking die. Maybe you'll think you love me, maybe you'll hate. Well you know, I don't give a shit. Its time to look after something else besides you. Its time to take back my fucking life. I can no longer put up with your selfishness. I spit on your pity, and fuck your lousy guilt trip. It won't work. I have no sympathy.

my mind has cleared for an empty thought. thoughts of destrution, thoughts of the earth on fire, falling into darkness, lost. the poisoned oceans and the lands in decay, our own destruction forced by selfishness, created by hate and oppression. as i watch the feilds and streams die, my eyes get harder to open. i stand in awe as i burn while my insides shatter and spill inside of me. what will be left after the ecocide, the destruction of ourselves and the earth. i always can hear laughter and remarks about what's happening. it's an unforseen future. as the clouds turn from white-grey to pitch black, a declaration has been set forth for our future. my soul increases with flames of complicity as the generation for which i live is torn down. we all rest on our high rocks, our pedestols, where we all fall into the emptyness we created. i plan to sew my eyes shut to never see this world again. to never see what has become of what never should have been. my world that is shared is now taken by hatred and all the things that onced clinged now die. if there was a so called "god" for the explanation for our existence, i don't think he would be able to stop us from destroying ourselves and our future. i can always have that picture of the garden of eden stuck in my head to fill it with beauty. but what's the reality of the situation? is it the peaceful and content oceans, trees and animals so relaxed from civilization or is it where we are killing and destroying everything in sight. as fire falls from the sky my bodie lays in ash. as the unseen holocaust destroys us all, ripping through mountains, killing cities, all hope is abandoned where we once had a future.
